

What is Mother's Day—

when the child you love is a child you didn't get to see or hold or raise?

There are no words adequate to provide comfort for the loss you must feel.

But please know your pain is not overlooked.

Your sorrow—and your child—are not forgotten, and you are deeply and wholeheartedly loved.

